

Compherensive Travel Guide

Chandigarh, India-->Paris, France

● Geography & City Bio

Paris, the capital of France, is located in the northern part of the country, in the region of Île-de-France. The city has a population of approximately 2.1 million people and is known for its rich cultural heritage, historic landmarks, and beautiful geography. The city is situated in a north-bending arc of the Seine River, which divides the city into two parts: the Left Bank and the Right Bank. The climate in Paris is temperate, with warm summers and cool winters. The best time to visit Paris is in the spring (April-May) and autumn (September-October), when the weather is mild and pleasant. Paris is in the Central European Time (CET) timezone, which is 1 hour ahead of Coordinated Universal Time (UTC).

📶 Language & Communication

The official language of Paris is French, but many Parisians also speak English, particularly in the service industry. As a traveler from India, you may find it challenging to communicate in French, but you can still get by with English. It's always a good idea to learn a few basic French phrases, such as "bonjour" (hello), "merci" (thank you), and "excusez-moi" (excuse me). You can also use a translation app or carry a phrasebook to help you communicate.

$ Currency Information

The local currency in Paris is the Euro (EUR). As of the current exchange rate (1 EUR = 105.24 INR), you can expect to pay around 0.0095 EUR for 1 INR. Your currency, INR, is not commonly accepted in tourist places, so it's recommended to exchange your money to EUR or use an ATM to withdraw cash. You can also use credit cards or debit cards, which are widely accepted in Paris.
