

■ Geography & City Bio

Paris, the capital of France, is located in the Île-de-France region in northern France. The city has a population of approximately 2.1 million people and is known for its rich cultural heritage, historic landmarks, and romantic atmosphere. The best time to visit Paris is from September to November or from January to March, when the weather is mild and there are fewer tourists. Paris is in the Central European Time (CET) timezone.

■■ Language & Communication

The official language of Paris is French, but many locals also speak English, particularly in tourist areas. As a traveler who speaks English and Hindi, you may face some communication difficulties, but many signs and menus are translated into English, and you can also use a translation app on your phone. Some helpful phrases in French include "bonjour" (hello), "merci" (thank you), and "excusez-moi" (excuse me).

■ Currency Information

The local currency in Paris is the Euro (EUR). The current exchange rate is 1 EUR = 104.80 INR. You can exchange your money at a currency exchange office or use an ATM to withdraw Euros. Credit cards are widely accepted in Paris, but it's always a good idea to have some cash with you. Your Indian Rupees may not be commonly accepted in tourist areas, so it's best to exchange them for Euros before your trip.
